

Northwind Materials Inc. (SYM001) – Q1 2026 Earnings Call Transcript

Operator: Good morning and welcome to the Northwind Materials first quarter 2026 earnings call.

CEO remarks: We are extremely pleased with a record quarter. Revenue grew 22% year over year, driven by strong demand across all regions. Operating margins expanded 340 basis points as our cost discipline took hold. We are raising full-year guidance and accelerating our buyback program. Our order book has never been stronger and we see robust momentum heading into the second half.

CFO remarks: Free cash flow more than doubled to a record level. The balance sheet is pristine, and we are confident in our ability to fund growth while returning capital to shareholders.

Analyst Q&A: Analysts noted the impressive margin trajectory and upbeat demand commentary. Management reiterated a very optimistic outlook and confidence in sustained double-digit growth.
